

JOSEPH MARZO SCHOLARSHIP

DEADLINE: APRIL 27, 2018

Joe Marzo was a native of Coudersport. He was a catcher on the 1951 Potter McKean Little League team which captured the state championship and represented Pennsylvania in the Little League World Series. He also was a standout football and basketball player at Coudersport High School. After serving in the U.S. Air Force, he attended Lock Haven State College and later received his master's degree from Cortland State College. During his 32 years of service to the Union-Endicott School District as a third and sixth grade teacher, Principal, Director of Elementary Education and Assistant Superintendent, he was known as an educator who loved children and always put the student's needs first.

The family of Joseph Marzo has established a scholarship to be presented annually to a member of the graduating class majoring in the field of education. Two other scholarships have already been established in his memory by family and friends in other school districts. One scholarship is awarded in Endicott, NY where Mr. Marzo was an educator for 32 years, and the second in Owego, NY where his seven children graduated from Owego Free Academy.
